Getting to Know You

Name: _____

This is the “Getting to Know You” section that is meant to identify the dreams, goals, likes and dislikes of the person with a developmental disability. Please take some time to prepare your responses.

SEC staff will help a person with a developmental disability an/or their caregiver/respondents to complete questions that allow us to gather information that assists others to understand the things that are important to the individuals’ current needs and future plans.

This part of the registration will also help to identify ways the person with a developmental disability can get involved in their community. Achieving their personal dreams and goals may require supports and services funded by other resources and it will be helpful for us to know how the supports you are requesting fit into the person’s life plan.

Tell us about yourself or if you are the respondent, please share what you have learned about this person.

What are things you like? (explore hobbies, bring you pleasure, relax you, just for fun, places you like to go, activities you enjoy, things you own/like to purchase; time alone or with whom, etc.):

What are the things you don’t like? (cause you stress, make you upset, you don’t enjoy; situations or environment, people, etc)?
What supports are helpful?

What are your special talents, gifts or strengths? Your accomplishments? What are some things that other people like about you or nice things others may say about you?

What are your dreams (for the future; a special “wish come true”. If money was not a barrier, etc)?
